FOREWORD

Higher Education scenario in Kerala has been going through turbulent transformations in recent times with the grant of autonomy to colleges by the State Government. There is no doubt about the qualitative worth of the institutions handpicked for autonomy. However, there are apprehensions about the absorption and implementation of the package of autonomy. St. Joseph's College was given autonomy in the year 2016, and has since then been endeavouring to reinvent itself.

Academic autonomy has given us the freedom to recreate our own curriculum and syllabus keeping in mind the challenges and changing needs of the society, the nation, the industry and the world. Hence, a structured feedback on the requirements of the new millennium was sought from all the relevant stakeholders of the institution- students, faculty, alumnae, parents, industry experts, employers etc.

The suggestions of the stakeholders were incorporated into the curricula and syllabi, and presented in the respective Boards of Studies for discussion. The changes pointed out were duly considered and the restructured syllabi are then presented to, and ratified by, the Academic Council.

The role of the IQAC of the college in the above exercise is laudatory. The Cell spearheads all the quality enhancement endeavours, including that of curriculum and syllabus redesigning. By organizing workshops, seminars and hands on training sessions, the cell has facilitated a smooth conduct of the restructuring process. At the end of the year, an evaluation of the syllabi followed is also undertaken, with suggestions noted down for future changes.

As an institution that wishes seriously to provide enhanced quality education to young women students in order to empower them to be fit for the changing world, St. Joseph's College is bravely facing the challenges even as it is happily handling the possibilities, that autonomy has brought to it. Academic enriching programmes, skill – based micro credentials, ICT up gradations, promotional activities for a culture of research, etc are a few of the multifarious responsibilities invested with the college in its restructuring of curriculum and redesigning of syllabus.

I specially thank the IQAC, the Heads of various departments the faculty, and staff, directly in charge of the syllabus updation, for their sincere and dedicated efforts.

COURSE CODE	SJENG1B01
TITLE OF THE COURSE	INTRODUCING LITERATURE
SEMESTER IN WHICH THE COURSE IS TO BE TAUGHT	1
NO. OF CREDITS	5
NO. OF CONTACT HOURS	108 (6 hrs per week)

AIM OF THE COURSE: To introduce students to literary texts and their unique conventions and contours – the linguistic, the social, the cultural and the political. OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE:

- To introduce students to the language of literature, i.e., the meaning-making devices, verb phrases, collocations, linkers, sense groups and their functions in the literary text
- To train the students to identify the linguistic structures of poetic texts: symbols, metaphors, and other tropes and equip them in poetic conventions
- To recognize diverse points of view within a single text and to understand the rationale of polyphony
- To prepare students in reading literary/cultural texts closely, beyond the literal.
- To enable students to recognize the dominant voice/s within the text and its agendas
- To encourage questioning the text in order to perceive marginalized voices - the voices of the child, Dalit, transgender and female
